GILBERT REED IS BACK FROM WAR

RETURNS LAST EVENING AFTER YEAR OF SERVICE AT THE FRONT—LOOKS WELL AND FEELS FINE.

Gilbert E. Reed, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Reed, one of the prominent families of this city, returned home last evening after nearly a year's service in the American army in France.

Mr. Reed was in the June 26th draft of 1918 and was sent from Ada to Camp Cody, New Mexico. After a month in the casual camp at that place he was placed in M Company, 133rd Infantry, 34th Division and assigned to the Intelligence department. He was placed at Government Wells, eight miles north of Camp Cody and remained there until the early part of September, training in patrol work peculiar to the Intelligence department.

About the middle of September Mr. Reed was transferred to Camp Dix, New Jersey, where it was expected that he would sail immediately to foreign shores, but the "flu" epidemic held up the sailing until October 15th. On October 25th, just ten days from the time he left American shores, he landed at Liverpool, England, and went immediately to a New Zealand and Australia camp located at Codford, England. Here it was that Mr. Reed got his first impressions of the seriousness of the great struggle, and here it was that he became endeared to the English and allied forces. He says the Americans were joyfully received and that nothing was too good for them in this camp.

At Le Havre, France, Mr. Reed was transferred to the 310th Infantry, 78th Division, and it was with these forces that he remained until the termination of the struggle and until his final release overseas. The 78th was known as the "Lightning Division," and it was this division that was in the thickest of the fight and which distinguished itself for valor on many battlefields.

Mr. Reed quit his company and division at LaMans, France, April 1st, this year, and sailed from Marseilles April 18th, bound for home, landing at Long Island May 8th, and was discharged at Mitchell Field.

The ship bringing Mr. Reed and his associates to America was the Columbia, an Australian boat that had been interned in Italy during the war and this was her maiden trip to the United States. She bore the Italian flag on the journey to America and made the trip without a hitch of trouble.

Mr. Reed was married to Miss Pauline Rogers, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Rogers, of Connerville, only a few months before the war clouds began to lower in this country, and he returns to find an addition to his family in the person of a beautiful little daughter which he has not yet seen.

Mr. Reed was engaged in the farm loan business in Ada before his departure and will resume his same business in the city immediately. He has many friends here who welcome him home, not the least of whom is the News and its family of workers.

COME TO SEE ME, FOLKS

I have just received the first Essex car that has come to this part of the country. It is an absolutely new car, the first one being put out this year. It is a strictly after the war product, and is the result of the entire experience of the automobile world. It is small but a hummer. Come in and see the baby. The newest is not necessarily the best, but it is always worth seeing. —F. A. Ford Garage, Corner Broadway and Tenth. 5-24-19

COLORED SCHOOL PRESENTS PROGRAM

Teachers A. B. McCutcheon and wife presented the pupils of the Napier school in closing exercises for the term of 1919, last night at the City Hall. This was the first effort made by the colored people in the history of Ada to appear in entertainment before the whites.

A good representation of both whites and colored were present and enjoyed a lengthy program and one that was well prepared, which consisted of dialogues, recitations, declamations, drills, choruses, one solo and several quartets.

They had their own pianist who furnished excellent music for the performance. The pupils showed that they had been well trained and conducted themselves beyond reproach. The teachers of this school deserve much praise for the progress that is being made along intellectual lines among their people in Ada.

Site for Building Bought.

The City Board of Education has closed the deal with the Indian Department for a block of ground on South Mississippi avenue, which belongs to Dan Hayes, for a site for the new school building. HASSEN BROTHERS COMING TO ADA

WILL OCCUPY HANEY BUILDING WITH LADIES' AND GENTS' READY TO WEAR STORE BY JULY FIRST.

Hassen Brothers, owners of a large mercantile establishment at Stratford, are coming to Ada and will, about July first, open a large and up to date stock of ladies' and gents' ready-to-wear in the building owned by N. B. Haney, Jr., located two doors west of the Guaranty State Bank on Main, and now occupied by the Snow White Barber Shop and the Smathers Cleaning Works.

They will not remove the Stratford stock to Ada, but the Ada establishment will be independent, and they claim, will be equal to any like establishment in the county.

We welcome the new firm to the city and predict for them a prosperous career in one of the best cities in Oklahoma.

YOUNG WOMAN'S VAIN ATTEMPT AT SUICIDE

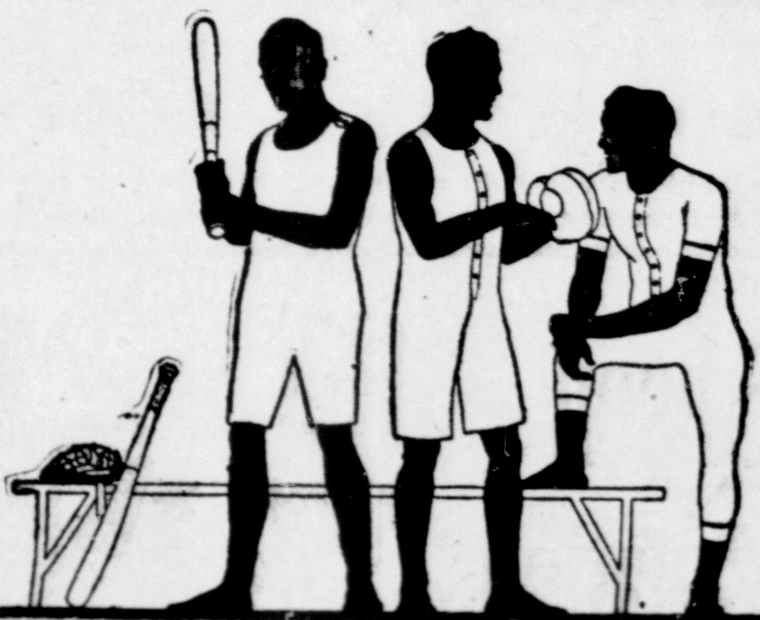

Mrs. May Bridgewater, who came here with her husband about ten days ago from Pittsburg, Kansas, was the important actress in a tragic scene at the court house yesterday afternoon. Mr. Bridgewater has only been home from France a short time and it seems that domestic trouble has been brewing since his arrival. Mrs. Bridgewater appeared before the proper officials the first of the week and swore out a warrant for the arrest of her husband on the grounds of desertion. Yesterday the husband returned to the county where he had been visiting his sister for several days who lives south of town. He went to the court house where he found his wife awaiting his return, and after pro and con discussions of their affairs with no signs of reconciliation on the part of the husband, the wife came down town and procured some carbolic acid and took it back to the scene of their quarrels in the county attorney's office and the adjoining hall and there attempted to drink the poison in the presence of her husband and others, but only succeeded in taking a small portion of the deadly vile when the bottle was taken from her. There were no fatal results and Mrs. Bridgewater is reported to be recovering nicely today.

A Monkey Wrench
in the Wheels of Progress

An abundant water supply is not one of the least assets of a city. In fact, the town with the best water in large quantities has a long lead over competitors less fortunately situated.

Ada has a magnificent water supply, the best in Oklahoma. But what about the facilities for distribution? Are the people and the industries of our city able to get all the water they need at all times?

A survey of the situation will reveal the fact that our town is in imminent danger of a water famine this summer if we have the usual long summer drouth. The summer months of years gone by will long be remembered by the average citizen as a period when water was almost unobtainable. This same calamity is likely to occur any year—and will occur if we do not take steps to relieve the situation.

MR. CITIZEN: Think over the matter of overhauling our water-works system. Therein lies food for thought.

Shall we leave the monkey wrench in the wheels of progress?

OHIO CELEBRATES
PASSING OF LIQUOR

By the Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., May 24.—The first of a double celebration marking the passing of liquor traffic in Ohio started here today and at midnight the state will virtually become prohibition territory under an amendment to the constitution adopted by the voters last autumn.

While midnight next Monday is specified in the new law as the time for the closing, the license year ends today and comparatively few saloon keepers paid the $300 necessary to re-open for the final celebration on Monday.

Big farewell parties to John Barleycorn were to be held tonight in nearly every wet municipality in Ohio, the biggest state in the country to have voted prohibition.

The authorities did not anticipate trouble in any community as a result of the expected hilarity.

For several weeks some communities have been preparing for the advent of prohibition and the number of licensed drinking places which totaled 5,600 a few months ago has been considerably reduced.

Saloonkeepers report that for several weeks stocks of wines and whiskeys have rapidly disappeared. Virtually all the finer wines and liquors have been disposed of. Despite the unusually high prices that have prevailed, the dealers say thousands of dollars worth of liquor has been stored in private warehouses and cellars for private consumption.

Scores of saloons that closed today will reopen shortly as lunch-rooms and refreshment stands. Several breweries will reopen as ice manufacturing and cold storage plants.

Ohio will enter the list of dry states without the usual prohibition enforcement machinery. For the present the prohibition laws will be enforced by state officials.

Prohibition leaders attempted to pass emergency prohibition legislation through the Ohio legislature this winter, but failed. A law enforcement bill was passed, but minus an emergency clause, and the "wets" have announced they will call a referendum upon it before it can become effective.

The state will lose revenue amounting to approximately $4,000,000 annually as the result of prohibition. Bills providing for new revenue-raising acts are pending before the Ohio general assembly.

WILL TAKE ARMY TO HARVEST KANSAS CROP

By the Associated Press

KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 24.—An army of more than 200,000 men will be required to harvest the giant wheat crop in Kansas this year, according to A. L. Barkman, director of harvest work, United States Employment service. Sixty thousand of this number must come from outside the state.

In making the estimate, he referred to the report of the Kansas Board of Agriculture, issued last month, which said that "with a general average condition of 99.32 per cent on an estimated total of 10,759,000 acres of growing winter wheat, Kansas never had a more flattering prospect for a record smashing crop."

The harvest labor problem in Kansas is more difficult than in any other state and 47,000 posters have been distributed among government buildings throughout the nation. While 500 letters a day are received here from prospective workers, Barkman said many who write will not come, and that careful distribution will be necessary to prevent a labor shortage.

Wheat cutting usually starts in the south central counties of Kansas about June 15 to 20, reaching the central part of the state ten days later. The demand for men increases as the harvest district broadens.

"Men should, if possible, provide themselves with sufficient funds to tide them over for a few days in case of rains or unavoidable delays in securing work," said Barkman. "The harvest fields do not offer light work and the sun is often exceedingly hot. Therefore, boys and men who are unused to heavy work are handicapped in securing employment in competition with able-bodied experienced men."

Missouri can care for its big wheat crop with local labor, Barkman said. Nebraska and states north will be supplied with harvest labor by the drift of men from Kansas, if that state, the center of the wheat belt, has a sufficient supply.

Watoga, W. Va.—Mrs. S. W. Gladwell, of this town, says: "When about 15 years of age, I suffered greatly. Then... it would last... two weeks, and was so weakening, and my health was awful.

My mother bought me a bottle of Cardui, and I began to improve after taking the first bottle, so kept it up till I took three. I gained, and was well and strong, and I owe it all to Cardui.

BIGGEST SALOON
IN WORLD CLOSING

By the Associated Press

BRIDGEPORT, O., May 24.—The biggest saloon in the world will go out of business Monday when Ohio becomes dry under an amendment to the state constitution.

It is located in this little city of 4,200 souls just across the Ohio river from Wheeling, W. Va. It is owned and operated by Sam Ungerleider.

The saloon employs seventy-seven bartenders and clerks and has 216 feet of bar. For the past year or two its average daily bank deposits have been 5,000, or $1,600,000 a year. The saloon has made Bridgeport one of the show places of the Ohio valley.

Ungerleider is 36 years of age. He is a millionaire and says he never smoked or drank intoxicating liquor. He estimates that since 1915 approximately 20,000 drinks a day have been sold over his bar. He also claims there has never been a fight in his saloon. He attributes this largely to the fact that he would not sell to a drunken man or a minor.

In addition to owning the world's biggest saloon, Ungerleider is a banker, manufacturer, mine owner, oil man, hotel owner and vice president of a street railway company at Columbus, O.

Presbyterians for Union.

ST. LOUIS, May 24.—Following receipt of a telegram from the southern Presbyterians stating that the southern body agrees to negotiate for the organic union of all Presbyterian churches, the 131st general assembly of the Presbyterian church U. S. A., last night sent a reply saying the denomination meeting here is ready to begin negotiations at once and that it is believed, a closer relationship will result.

Rev. J. H. Snowden, chairman of the committee on church work declared this was the most progressive step taken in the church in sixty years and no doubt will mean the union for which the churches have been working.

Debate on the question whether women should be admitted to the ministry and eldership of the church was deferred until today.

Members of the committee disagree on the question.

Troubles don't make joyful news, but listen, my expenses have been doubled and more. ADA HIGH SCHOOL
CLOSES FOR YEAR

NINETEEN GRADUATES, TEN RE-CEIVE DIPLOMAS—OTH-ERS TO ATTEND
NORMAL.

The closing exercises of the Ada High School commencement were held last evening in the First Methodist church. Nineteen young men and women were graduated, ten of them having completed their work and receiving their diplomas. The other nine will receive their diplomas this summer after they have completed the summer term at the Normal. Miss Annie Carroll Simpson is a member of the graduating class, though she is now in Ward-Belmont College, Nashville. She lacked only a small amount of work finishing last year and was permitted to do this in college.

The program was carried out as planned. The address of Judge Orel Busby was not only instructive to the young folk entering the world of business or advanced study, but it was full of inspiration and encouragement. The diplomas were delivered by L. T. Walters, Chairman of the Board of Education.

The program closed with two brilliantly rendered songs by the Girls' Glee Club, under the direction of Miss Ringer.

ENORMOUS INCREASE

April exports surpassed the previous high record by nearly one hundred million dollars, it has been announced by the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, Department of Commerce, Washington.

Exports for the month totaled $715,000,000, as compared with $623,000,000 for January, the previous high mark. For March of this year the total was $605,000,000 and for April a year ago, $501,000,000. For the ten months ended with April the exports were valued at $5,705,000,000, as against $4,884,000,000 for the corresponding period last year.

Imports for April totaled $273,000,000 in value, a gain of $5,000,000 over the $268,000,000 announced for March, and a decrease of $6,000,000 as compared with the $279,000,000 for April of last year. Imports for the ten months ended with April are put at $2,274,000,000 as compared with $2,362,000,000 for a similar period in 1918.

Army Worm Invades Texas.

WASHINGTON, May 24.—The army of the worm—which gets its name from the fact that it moves in immense hordes, leaving a trail of destruction—has appeared in large numbers in the general vicinity of Fort Worth and Dallas, Texas. It is busily engaged in destroying the wheat and oats crop in that state, according to reports to the United States Department of Agriculture. Prevailing damp, cool weather favors the development of the army worm and makes likely an invasion of large proportions within the next four to six weeks in many states east of the Rocky Mountains.

The Department of Agriculture urges all farmers in the threatened regions to watch for the pest in its younger stages and be ready with control measures. Meadows, particularly those planted to millet, timothy, and blue grass should be frequently examined during the spring and early summer. If small infestations are discovered the grass or grain should be mowed off and straw should be scattered over the spot and burned, thus destroying the worms. If the insects have become distributed over a large area it should be marked off by stakes and the crops should be sprayed heavily with a mixture of Paris green at the rate of one pound to 50 gallons of water. This solution should not be applied to corn or it will burn it. Instead, two pounds of arsenate of lead powder to 50 gallons of water should be used. Grass or grain sprayed with these poisons should not be fed to live stock.

When the caterpillars are on the march or are starting in one corner of a field of grain, they may be headed off by plowing a deep furrow in their path. Then the insects that have fallen into the furrow may be killed by dragging a log through it.

A torpid liver is a heavy handicap to a working man. It robs him of strength, energy and mental alertness. To remove the burden the proper remedy is Prickly Ash Bitters. It is a fine liver, stomach and bowel medicine. Price $1.25 per Bottle.—Gwin & Mays Drug Co., Special Agents.—Adv.

BEDFAST EVERY
WINTER; STOMACH
TROUBLE GONE

Mrs. Mershon Found Speedy Relief After 18 Years' Suffering.

"I had suffered from stomach trouble for 18 years, and had spent hundreds of dollars doctoring. Every winter I was bedfast most of the time. I commenced taking Milks Emulsion last fall, and before I had taken half a dozen bottles, my stomach trouble disappeared and I have had no return of it since. This is the first winter in 18 years that I have not been bedfast. I also give Milks Emulsion to the children for cough, with splendid results."—Mrs. W. G. Mershon, Brazil, Ind.

Thousands of people who have suffered for years from stomach and bowel troubles, as Mrs. Mershon did, have found the same wonderful relief and lasting benefit from Milks Emulsion.

Milks Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and physics. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength, Milks Emulsion is strongly recommended to run-down nervous people, and it has produced amazing results in many cases of tuberculosis of the lungs. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved—usually in one day.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream. A truly wonderful medicine for weak, sickly children.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milks Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 60c and $1.20 per bottle. The Milks Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold and guaranteed by Gwin & Mays Drug Company.

40 YEARS ON THE JOB

I put 40 years in the study and practice of medicine and pharmacy before I was fortunate enough to secure and perfect the wonderful prescription for "Number 40 For the Blood" and at this late date in life I would not offer suffering humanity a medicine that I did not believe better than that offered by any doctor or druggist. I have observed the effect of "Number 40" in thousands of cases and can safely recommend it in all diseases of the blood such as specific blood poisoning, in chronic rheumatism, catarrh, constipation, stomach and liver diseases, to cause sores and ulcers to heal and disperse nodes, tumors and scrofulous swellings. Jones Writes Gore.

Ada, Okla., May 21, 1919.
Honorable T. P. Gore, U. S. S.,
Washington, D. C.

Esteemed Sir and Friend:
My attention has been called to your circular letter of the 15th, inquiring whether the people of this section were in favor of the Government retaining control of the railroads and telegraph or whether they were in favor of the immediate return of them to private ownership.

I believe all thinking people are in favor of the immediate return of the railroads and telegraph to private ownership. Personally, I believe that the operation of them by the government has resulted in much inefficiency, and since the public has had an opportunity to keenly feel the effects of it, I think the masses share the same view. The fact that the exigency for which they were taken over has ceased to exist, more than bears out my theory, and proves the correctness of the attitude of the great majority of our people.

With kindest regards, I am,
Sincerely yours,
W. C. JONES.

PROSPECTS

East Central is one of the two State Normals whose president and faculty is to go undisturbed into another year. Due to this fact and the fact that the old summer faculty with some strong additions, will be on again for the summer, the institution may well expect to make a record in good service to the students in attendance. Besides, letters from all over the district point to an attendance of over a thousand.

The summer students will find not only this strong, steady faculty, but the best bunch of special features ever put on in the summer.

SPECIALS

1—Barney Riley is one of the greatest barytones in the world, but he is more—he is the greatest Irish ballad barytone of the age. He will sing on July 7th.
2—Arthur F. Bishop of Seattle is a humorist of unusual vigor, but his lectures are powerful in inspiration. He is a way-maker for the new order of things. His lectures will come on July 8th and 9th.
3—Dr. A. E. Winship, editor of the "School Journal," and probably the most noted educator of America, is the man who has the last word in the problems of education and he is the man who gives his messages so powerfully and aptly that no one ever forgets it. July 14th is the date.
4—Dr. A. F. Smith is the man for the big principles and the daily trying problems.
5—Anna Weaver Jones will direct physical training for the girls again this summer and will give weekly programs.
6—C. W. Richards of Ardmore needs no introduction. He will be on for one or two lectures for the summer.
7—A number of other special numbers are being arranged for the summer, including another big musical number.
8—Choruses and orchestra or band will be organized at the beginning of the term. Every student possessing same should bring his band and orchestra instruments with him. Choruses will be under direction of Miss Keller, orchestra and band work under Mr. Cruz. These are both experts in their lines and will each put on a big student's program during the term.

BACCALAUREATE SERMON

By Rev. G. J. Rousseau.
His Remarkable Career.

Native of the Transvaal, Africa, fought in the Boer War; British prisoner of war on the Island of St. Helena; Chaplain in U. S. Army during recent war; Marconi operator for 48 transatlantic trips; eminent Baptist Divine; as speaker on special train campaign of the Southwestern states, put over sale of $7,000,000 worth of Third Liberty Loan bonds.

"1919 CLASS" ADDRESS

By Hon. Luther Harrison.

Luther Harrison, eminent senator from Pontotoc and Seminole counties, is another man of the hour, who seems to have all history in his mind at once, and who, basing his expectations upon conclusions drawn therefrom, has set his face vigorously toward the "new day" and its "new problems."

He is an orator, statesman, and sociologist whose message will be an epoch maker in the lives of the students who hear him. His recent telling service for his district and state as well as to the Normal, has put him ahead and already at least one of the "high chairs" of the state is calling him.

First Baptist Sunday School.

Last Sunday morning we had present 396. This was certainly a splendid showing and yet it is 104 short of our goal. I am wondering if by this Sunday we cannot go to 450. I believe we can if all the old ones will come and fifty-four others come. Figure it out and see if you do not come to the conclusion that I am right.

We haven't done anything but break records now every Sunday for five or six weeks. Let next Sunday be another record breaker. Make it 450.

Wallace M. Crutchfield, Pastor.
We are expecting many new pupils in our Sunday school Sunday, and will be looking for the largest attendance we have had for a year. Bring the whole family with you.
The pastor will give two sermons at the morning meeting; one to the Junior Congregation at the close of Sunday school, and the second sermon at the usual morning hour of worship.
The Juniors will meet with Mrs. Jeter at 2:30 P. M. The Intermediate and Senior young people will meet at seven forty-five. To each of these meetings you will be cordially welcomed.
The evening hour of public worship is eight-thirty, and we will at this service celebrate the successful campaign just completed for the Centenary of Methodist Missions.
The heart of the pastor is made to rejoice in fellowship with a loyal bunch of Methodist people who can lay $15,000 on God's altar for missionary work within the limits of a week. The names of the donors will be engraved forever upon the tablets of his memory.

First Baptist Church.

Tomorrow morning the pastor will tell of the recent Southern Baptist Convention. It was the most important session of the convention ever held in the history of the organization. First because of the times in which we are living and because of the subtle influences which are operating to tear down denominationalism. This was epochal convention. Come Sunday morning and let us detail the work to you as it will be interesting.
Sunday school will begin promptly at 9:45 and we are going to expect you. We are exceedingly anxious to reach the 450 mark and we can do so if every body will get busy between now and 9:45 tomorrow morning.
The Sunbeams will meet at 2:30 P. M., and the Juniors at 2:30 P. M.
The Senior B. Y. P. U. will meet at 7:45. We are counting on a splendid attendance at this service. All the young people of our church and any others are cordially invited.

At night the pastor will preach an evangelistic sermon on the subject, "The Danger of Drifting" and it is hoped we will have a splendid congregation to hear it. An appeal will be made for the unsaved to accept the Savior. After all this is the main thing, getting folks to accept the Christ. Any denomination that drops the evangelistic fervor will ultimately die.

Let us have the great pleasure of greeting you at these services tomorrow.—Clyde Calhoun Morris, Pastor. 411 South Broadway. Phone 812.

AIRMEN'S MASCOT HAD HARD TIME IN COURT

LONDON, April 17.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press)—American airmen who befriended and made a mascot of a bright, curly-haired English boy named George Loveridge, will be grieved to learn that the lad had a hard time of it after they returned to the United States. Charged with sleeping under a hayrick and having no visible means of support, the youth was arraigned in the Ukridge police court the other day.

"Well, my boy," questioned the court, "haven't you any friends at all?"

"Only the Yanks, sir," the prisoner replied.

He said his father and mother were killed and their house wrecked by a bomb in an air raid in October, 1917.

"Some American airmen," he went on "took pity on me and called me the mascot of No. 186th Squadron. They treated me very kindly, gave me a uniform and took me with them wherever they went. I was paid $10 a month by the paymaster. When the squadron went to France they wanted to take me, but the war office wouldn't let them so they asked No. 153d Squadron to take care of me. When that left for France I was handed over to No. 228th Squadron and came with them to Northolt."

"Now they have returned to America. They tried right hard to take me, but the government said I couldn't go for four years. I spent all my money and had to sleep under the hayrick."

In handing the boy over to the police court missionary, the magistrate said: "You must not mind being in the dock. You haven't done anything very wrong."

Your castle in the air can be made real if you start a bank account

Unless a Bank is More Than a Mere Commercial Machine

Unless it is more than simply an institution for paying dividends to stockholders; unless it is imbued with a real spirit of public service and a desire to be a CONSTRUCTIVE and UP-BUILDING FORCE in the community—then it is falling far short of what a bank should be.

While this bank, like all banks, must be operated for profit, it does not for a moment lose sight of its higher duties to its customers and to the public.

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH

2nd Bl., South Broadway.

One of the greatest powers for good ever brought into existence is the Bible School. Statistics show that the Bible School acts as a powerful curb on crime and at least 80 per cent of the members of the church come through the Bible School.

The Bible School of the First Christian Church opens every Sunday morning at 9:45. C. E. Cuning is the superintendent. This school is in a very healthy condition. There is a class for everyone and a welcome is assured all who come.

Church worship begins at eleven o'clock. The Woodmen memorial sermon will be given at this time by the minister. All Woodmen are expected to attend the service. All members of the church and friends are cordially welcome.

The Christian Endeavor Society will meet at 7:30. These Endeavor meetings are fine for young people and they are being well attended. A definite program is always prepared but anyone is welcome to take part.

The evening church worship will begin at 8:30. The minister will deliver the last one of the messages on the general theme "From Egypt to Canaan." Sunday evening the theme will be "The Capture of Jericho."

The minister always has a sermonee for the boys and girls at the evening service. These sermonettes are nearly always illustrated with some familiar object. Boys and girls are more than welcome at the evening service and parents are urged to bring their children.—C. V. Dunn, Minister.
